

A floor plan of a museum building. The layout is as follows: At the top left is the Hall of Wildlife (light blue). To its right is the Hall of Archeology (pink). Further right is the Hall of Minerals (light green). At the top right is a narrow Children's Hall (orange). Below these is the Hall of Paleontology (orange). At the bottom is the Hall of Malacology (teal). On the right side, below the Hall of Paleontology, is the Museum Store (white). The plan shows various furniture like tables, benches, and display cases, as well as architectural details like doorways and windows.
